AMUSEMENTS.

m.... The final performance of "Fatinitza" went before a large audience last evening. This was the eighth public rendition of the opera, and the ninth, including that given for the old folks. All the notable features were given the usual encores and the general opinion seemed to be that last night's presentation was the most successful of any of its predecessors. The company will now enter upon a long period of rest.

The O. S. L. people have been doing some figuring with a view to inducing the company to put in a week in the north, at Butte, Pocatello, Logan, and possibly Boise, but it is not likely that anything will come of the proposition as every member of the company is en-gaged in business, so that it would be almost impossible to secure leaves of absence.

SHORT LINE FILES APPEAL

Second Gun Fired in the Legal Contest Over Grade.

ENTERED AT CARSON TODAY

Matter Now Taken Up by the Commissioner of the General Land Office at Washington.

The Oregon Short Line & Utah Northern Railway company, and the Utah, Nevada & California Railway company, through their attorneys, Parley L. Williams and Tremor Coffin, have appealed from the findings, conclusion and decision of the register and receiver at the United States land office at Carson City, April 5, declaring their rights to the disputed grade in Lincoln county, Nev., forfeited.

The papers have been dispatched for filing in Carson by special messenger, and it is expected that they will be placed on record in that land office this afternoon. At the same time this morning C. O. Whittemore and John D. Winder, as representatives of the Utah & California railroad company, were served with copies of the original appeal papers.

sioner of the general land office at The document leads off with a pre-amble wherein it is set forth that in appealing from the decision rendered at Carson the Oregon Short Line & utah Northern and the Utah, Nevada & Callfornia do not admit the necessity of making the appeal; the papers set forth that the Carson land office erred in its decision wherein it maintains that the grade was abandoned.

The appeal now goes to the commis-

The specifications of errors as recited are eleven in number, among them being the following:

"Ninth-The said Register and Receiver erred in failing to find as shown by the record and uncontradicted evi-dence that the said Utah & California Railway company, although incorpor-ated in 1896, had not commenced the construction of its road and had not expended three per cent of its capital stock, and that therefore as shown by the law of Utah which was introduced in evidence and contained in the record, its said corporate franchise was forfeited and it had no standing whatsoever before the said Register and

The decision of the honorable the commissioner of the general land office at Washington will be awaited with extreme interest.

In the meantime the track-laying op-erations down on the grade are going ahead as though there were no such thing in existence as the projected Clark road. General Superintendent E. E. Calvin of the Oregon Short Line returned from the front this morning. When seen he stated that the bridge forces were about through with the three heaviest bridges that will be enlaying was proceeding apace. "We have laid over six miles and now that we are past those three bridges the gangs will push right ahead laying steel, Calvin further stated that everything was quiet on the grade and he did not anticipate any trouble.

Engineer H. M. McCartney of the Clark road wired this morning from Nephl to the effect than he was coming to town, but up to a late hour he could not be located.

Ex-President Perkins of Burlington

Makes an Announcement. Boston, April 18 .- The first authoritative announcement concerning the ne-gotiations for the purchase of the Chiago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad company by the Northern Pacific and Great Northern Railroad companies, was given out tonight from the office of the Boston News Bureau in the form of a statement from Director and ex-President Charles E. Perkins, of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, as follows: 'Mr. Perkins says it was practically settled this afternoon that a formal of fer of $200 per share will be made in the course of a week or two, payable in the joint 4 per cent bonds of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific companies, secured by a deposit of Chicago, Burlington & Quincy stock in trust, and that J. P. Morgan & Co., in behalf of a syndicate, will offer to buy $50,000,000 of the bonds at par. Mr. Perkins says that personally he is in favor of accepting the proposition."

New York, April 18.—It was officially stated in Wall street today after the close of business that the proposed control of the Burlington by the Northern and Northern Pacis interests would be effected by an issue of $220,000,000 in bonds on the basis of $2 in bonds for each $1 outstanding of Burlington stock. The Issue will be underwritten by a syndicate at par with commissions off.

St. Louis-Ogden Flyer.

The Denver News says: The acquisition of the Denver & Rio Grande and Rio Grande Western roads by interest of the Missouri Pacific has made sible a new transcontinental fast train service. This service will connect St. Louis with lines from New York, and will land passengers in Ogden from the Atlantic coast in practically the same time as is required from Chicago to the same point. The schedules are now being carefully worked out at head-quarters of the Missouri Pacific and friendly connectin groutes, and the new fast trains will be announced within a distinct competitor of the Union Pa-cific, and every elegance and comfort way passes will not be honored on the flyer, and stops will be made only at flyer, an dstops will be made only at the most important places on the route. The idea has been in contemplation for many months, but it could not be realized until the Gould interests obtained virtual control of the connections in Colorado and Utah.

Idaho Falls Times: About fifty teams and scrapers are at work on the railroad grading about three miles north of the city. It is understood the road bed will be raised and widened for some distance north as it is a low place on the line. Parker & Boomer's outfit of Butte, are doing the work. Further than this nothing is known outside off. cial circles, but rumor has it that the grade beyond the bridge will be reduced and the curve straightened somewhat or that the road will be changed so as to cross the river near John's Hole.

A TOUCHING SERVICE.

Funeral of Little Mabel Freeman, who Was Burned to Death.

The funeral services over the remains of little Mabel Freeman, who was burned to death on Wednesday, were held this forenoon and were almost overwhelming in their tender pathos. It was a sorrowful company of people who gathered at the home, 1770 Fifth East street, to mingle their tears with those of the saddened parents. There were weeping children there,: loving playmates of little Mabel, who came to strew flowers upon the tiny coffin, and gaze awe-stricken at the strange hand of death. There were strong men and tender women, who had loved ones of their own, and who came to comfort the bereaved ones, but overpowered with the sympathetic sense of the parwoe, their lips trembled fused to speak, and their eyes yielded up tears that could not be restrained.

The impressive services were presided over by Bishop H. F. Burton of Farmers ward, and speeches of sympathy and comfort were made by Elders Samuel Moore, Asahel H. Woodruff, Bishop Burton, President A. W. Ivins, and Apostle A. O. Woodruff. The house was too small to accommodate the friends who came to the funeral. The flowers were numerous and very beautiful, symbolizing the sweetness, innocence and purity of little Mabel. The music was in perfect accord with the occa-sion, being very sweet and pathetic. It was furnished by a quintet composed Mrs. Lottle Eardley, Miss Vilate Peart, Joseph Anderson, A. H. Wood-ruff and E. T. Burton, who sang "I Need Thee Every Hous" and " Dear Little Rosebud has Left You. request John James sang "O My Fath. The interment was in Mount to W. E. Cowley.

THE DEATH OF J. M. THOMAS

Was Killed by One of the Robber Roost Outlaws.

The ticket which was issued to W. E. Cowley who was murdered at Helper on the night of April 6th, has been used by some one coming to Salt Lake, and may prove a clue in tracing the murderers. Evidence has been adduced lately to show that there were two of them and shreds of clothing found in the neighborhood go to show that there

As regards the death of J. M. Thomas it looks as if the coroner's verdict of suicide might be a mistake in view of terwards the bank at Springville was burglarized. Somehow or other news of Thomas's information to the governor reached one of the Robbers' Roost gang who was released from the state prison a few days before Thomas's death. Last, there is the murder of Murray on Gold Mountain, and it looks not improbable that the Robbers' Roost gang may be responsible for all three of the deaths.

It is not improbable that the governor may offer a reward for the apprehension of the murderers.
